ARTISAN HOPPING

Gujo Artisan Hopping – Food Sample

Meet Gujo's craftspeople: indigo dyeing demonstration, dancing-geta workshop visit, and make your own food sample

Overview	Walk the castle town of Gujo Hachiman with an English-speaking guide and step into the workshops behind the town's 400-year-old Gujo Odori dance culture. Watch a master dyer at work at Watanabe Dye Works (Watanabe Somemono-ten, founded in the 16th century), visit the Gujo Geta workshop (Gujo Mokuri), where the wooden geta for the dance are made, then finish at the Food Sample Atelier (Sample Kobo) — a traditional machiya townhouse with Showa-era retro displays — where you craft your own realistic food sample, from spilled ice cream to sushi or tempura.
Availability	December 1, 2026 – December 27, 2027 (Closed: Year-end/New Year, irregular holidays. Gujo Geta workshop visit: Oct–Mar by advance reservation)
